Microsoft Certified Technology Specialist (MCTS): SharePoint 2010, Configuring

Many companies are investing in collaborative technologies like those offered by Microsoft SharePoint Server to help manage and share vast quantities of valuable information. With a Microsoft SharePoint Server certification, you can assist them. Get certified to build and configure web portals, integrate business applications and manage administration and deployment of collaborative solutions.

The Microsoft Certified Technology Specialist (MCTS) SharePoint Configuring certification is aimed at IT professionals who configure and deploy Microsoft SharePoint 2010 and helps validate the knowledge and skills required to deploy and administer an enterprise SharePoint Server environment.
